

Pueblo Indian Pottery Class

Want to experience a unique and cultural approach to pottery? Girls work with clay and learn to make animal pinch pots, coiled pots and medallions to wear as jewelry, all in the traditional style and technique of the renowned Pueblo Indian potters. Class time can be tailored to fulfill Try-It, badge, patch or IP requirements. Girls create and decorate their own works of art and potter Sandy King Martin will fire them in her kiln. Classes include an optional video viewing of Pueblo potters creating their magnificent art.

Grade: All ages

Date/Time: 2.5 hours, by appointment

Location: Your troop meeting place

Fee: $38 per girl (10 girl minimum; includes clay, materials, firing and Sandy's transportation costs)

Contact: Sandy King Martin, (760) 942-7496, skmpots@gmail.com

Other: www.skmpottery.com